About Michelle

Michelle Arbeau is an internationally known Intuitive Numerologist, author, lecturer and inspirational speaker. She travels frequently throughout North America sharing her knowledge of numbers and the spiritual plane in her workshops and seminars. Michelle also provides private readings and intuitive mentoring for clients all over the world.

At the tender age of 4, Michelle died briefly during a choking accident. She remembers looking through what seemed to be a distorted bubble as she was leaving her body. During her brief death experience, two white light beings (Angels) were by her side while Michelle watched from outside her body as her mother removed the candy from her throat and began to revive her. The whole event lasted mere minutes but the experience forever changed her. After that day, Michelle began experiencing psychic phenomenon that continued to develop and unfold throughout her childhood.

In her mid-twenties, the psychic skills that had blossomed during her childhood began to resurface after being suppressed during her teen years and they first showed up in her dreams. During this time, she began suddenly dreaming in numbers every night. It was obvious that the numbers were direct messages from beyond which led Michelle to begin searching for the meaning behind all the numbers. The first book she encountered was Doreen Virture's Angel Numbers book. This immediately explained what the messages were relaying – the numbers were guiding messages for the situations she was currently going through. Ravenous for more answers, Michelle dove head-first into studying the science of numbers.

This marked the beginning of Michelle's love affair with numbers. She has been studying the numbers for the past 7 years and uses them every day in her readings, lectures and workshops. According to her, the numbers are NEVER wrong and that our birth date is a road map of our life. She says, "There is nothing hocus-pocus about the science of numbers. It is a very scientific and logical system based on pure mathematics – Pythagoras was definitely onto something. Everything in the universe can be counted, numbered or measured using numbers. Numbers merely represent the unseen energetic forces all around and within us."

Michelle says "Numbers are the code of the Universe and our date of birth represents the specific point within the cyclic energetic patterns that make up our world. Like a seed contains all the information about the plant it will grow into, our date of birth holds the specific pattern of who we are, what we're here to do and how to do it".

She is the author of the soon to be released book "The Power of Words: Harness The Vibration Of Language & Transform Your Life" and is the President of Authentic You Productions Inc., an event planning/hosting company with a focus on total health/wellness – mind, body and soul. She also hosts a featured weekly radio show, "SURVIVING THE SHIFT: A Show Where Spirituality Meets Practicality" on Blog Talk Radio with spiritual gurus and celebrity guests each week who share their spiritual journey from a practical and candid perspective.

Speaking Topics

Passion, Purpose, Potential: Live Your Passion, Discover Your Purpose & Embrace Your Potential

The most asked question I hear from clients is, "What is my life purpose?" I created the seminar Passion, Purpose, Potential to help YOU answer this question for yourself. Contrary to popular belief, our life purpose is not something we must struggle to find or reveal - it is right under our nose!

In my Passion, Purpose, Potential seminar, I will show you how your greatest passions are like windows into your purpose. The things that give us the most joy in life contain the seed of purpose. Those joys may be simply being in nature, playing with children, journaling, cooking, painting or any number of things. Many people assume these things are too simple or plain to be related to their life purpose, but this couldn't be further from the truth.

In this 2 hour seminar, I will share with you my own story of living my passion, discovering my purpose and embracing my potential and I will show you the easy and practical steps to do the same in your own life. A series of 7 basic yet profoundly inspiring questions will help you reveal your passion and get started with it immediately. We'll also examine/re-write the negative patterns that may be preventing you from living embracing your passion.

It is really that simple to begin living the life you've been dreaming of!

The Power of Numbers: Numbers are the Language of the Universe

As a professional Intuitive Numerologist, I can show you how your date of birth is like a road map for your life. Our date of birth can show us who we are, what we're here to do and how to do it.

Numbers represent the energetic patterns that make up our world. Everything in existence is comprised of energy. Even quantum physics has recently discovered that at the base of an atom is frozen light particles (aka energy). Energy follows patterns and if we can recognize and understand these patterns, life magically transforms from chaos into a world of order, rhythm and harmony.

If you're frustrated and confused with life and seem to repeat the same mistakes and patterns over and over again, you are NOT following the flow of energy, you're pushing against it. Relationship issues with partners, children, friends or co-workers can all be improved drastically when we understand both our own energetic patterns and theirs. Our date of birth is our own personal owner's manual!

In addition to your date of birth, other numbers such as house addresses, phone numbers, number sequences, etc. all represent an energetic influence in your life that can be understood through the numbers.

Understand you and the world around you through the power of numbers!
